Oxnard Youth Organizer, FT Job Description

BRIEF HISTORY

Future Leaders of America (FLA) began as a grassroots response to the lack of Latinx role models in Oxnard, California. For 40 years now, FLA has provided over 9,500+ low-income Latinx youth, and their families, with personal development, leadership development, educational experiences, and advocacy training in Ventura and Santa Barbara County. FLA has worked tirelessly to develop strong communities through youth leadership, advocacy, and creating positive role models. The organization is seeking positive role models who can continue the legacy of FLA leadership in the community.

FLA's MISSION

FLA develops youth resiliency and leadership to create long-lasting systemic change by empowering and mobilizing youth leaders to advocate for policies that improve their lives and the lives of their peers and their communities.

FLA's TARGET POPULATION

Future Leaders of America (FLA) is a community and critical resource dedicated to enhancing the cultural and educational experiences of Latinx youth on the Central Coast. We believe that when the voices, experiences, and histories of Latinx youth are recognized, the opportunity for self-development emerges and the foundation for critical thinking in leadership forms. FLA actively serves and welcomes all youth through a peer-to-peer leadership curriculum that is responsive to the diverse Latinx experience on the Central Coast.

POSITION OVERVIEW

FLA is seeking an experienced Full Time Youth Organizer in Oxnard to train, develop and empower Latinx/BIPOC youth to mobilize and create a positive change in Oxnard. The Youth Organizer will work with youth on improving social conditions for Latinx community members; specially, the youth organizer will co-lead campaigns to address education inequities, health equity, and immigration issues through youth-led advocacy and media campaigns. The Youth Organizer is responsible for coordinating the development and implementation of organizing projects in the aforementioned areas. The Youth Organizer will support the ongoing leadership development of youth leaders. The Youth Organizer will also work to engage community members, FLA youth and parents, to respond to and improve social conditions. Start date: October 19th, 2022 (or sooner depending on applicant's availability). The Youth Organizers responsibilities include:

1. Youth Organizer

- Develop and strengthen leadership abilities of Future Leaders of America Master Achievers (FLAMA) youth council by conducting biweekly youth council meetings. The Youth Organizer will also build strong working relationships with all FLAMA youth council students
- Conduct leadership building activities with FLAMA members. Activities include but not limited to: organizing and conducting listening campaigns and developing relationship with community leaders
- Advise and train FLAMA youth council on advocacy and strategic planning for local campaigns on health disparities among the Latinx/BIPOC community. The Youth Organizer will work closely with the Organizing Director to implement strategies and campaigns. Develop and maintain collaborations with local, regional, state and national partner organizations

2. Program Outreach

- Work with the Director of Annual Programs and Associate Programs Director to plan, recruit and execute annual programming, which includes but not limited to: Youth Leadership Conference, University Seminars, Family Camp, Facilitator Trainings, and supplemental activities
- Track student participation through internal database; collect evaluations from all students
- Provide logistical support to FLA youth-led events through meeting logistics, preparation and facilitation

3. General and Other

- Work with partner organizations on civic engagement and nonpartisan electoral work

- Promote FLA's mission and goals, including articulating the mission and taking opportunities to advance its goals when appropriate
- Other assigned duties
